B-2. Ball Toss. Toss a ball in the air and catch it as you spell each spelling word. Say the word, then each time you toss up the ball, say one letter until each word is spelled.

Daily Flashcard Review (DFR): Every day, before you begin your spelling exercises, take your flashcards and review them with these steps:

Say the word out loud.

Say the letters out loud as you trace them with your finger.

Color the smiley face each day you complete the DFR: 😊😊😊😊😊

C-1. Spelling Rules.

😊 Reminder: DFR

Let's look at these words to discover a new rule. What do you notice about the underlined syllables?

a-miss    flum-mox    ig-no-rant

Does each underlined syllable end in a consonant or a vowel?

How many vowels are there in each underlined syllable?

Does each underlined vowel say its long or short sound?

These words all follow this rule:

When a syllable ends in a consonant and has only one vowel, that vowel is short.

Underline the syllables in these words that follow the new rule:

pal-try    pes-ky    sul-len

C-2. Squares.

Write each spelling word twice making squares with the words as you write them. Be careful to spell the words correctly.

D-1. Missing Syllable.

Oh, no! Each word is missing a syllable or letters. Choose the missing letters from the list and rewrite each word correctly.
